

SG Capital Management Expands Team

Investment Firm Hires New Senior Managing Director Ethan Steinberg

CHICAGO – April 8, 2013 – SG Capital Management, LLC, an SEC registered investment adviser headquartered in Chicago, is pleased to announce the appointment of Ethan Steinberg as Senior Managing Director effective April 5, 2013. Ethan will share responsibility for idea generation with the equity analyst team and portfolio management along with the firm’s two founding partners, Ken Grossman and Glen Schneider.

After graduating from Brown University in 1996, Ethan spent the last 16 years at Friess Associates focused on the investment management activities of the Brandywine Funds. He began his career in 1997 as a Research Manager, in 1999 was promoted to Researcher and then Research Team Leader (Portfolio Manager). For the last 5 years, in addition to managing his own team, he assisted with CIO functions overseeing the Brandywine Funds entire portfolio.

SG Capital Management, LLC invests the assets of our funds and separately managed accounts on behalf of institutional and high net worth investors. “We are excited to have Ethan join our team. We feel that he will add significant value and depth to our existing team’s efforts in generating actionable ideas,” said Ken Grossman.
