NEW YORK – October 27, 2014 – ClearVest, LLC (“ClearVest”), a leading independent alternative investment platform, announced today the expansion of managers approved by the firm’s investment committee. “Coherence Capital Partners is very pleased to partner with ClearVest as they continue to expand,” said Sal Naro, CEO/CIO of Coherence Capital Partners, a New York-based asset manager and advisory firm focused on fixed income opportunities in North America and Europe. “The ClearVest platform will help us streamline the sharing of important information with qualified investors, and significantly increases our reach into the growing universe of Registered Investment Advisors,” he added.

“At ClearVest our proven experience with hedge funds, funds of hedge funds and managed accounts combined with our technology truly sets us apart,” said Sara Malak, Chief Administrative Officer. “Our unique and conflict free structure also allows investors to allocate confidently to exceptional managers often at significantly lower minimums than by making direct investments.”

“We recognize that identifying astute alternative investment managers requires a combination of proven experience and the application of the most advanced technologies,” said Peter Murrugarra, Head of Manager Due Diligence. “Many of ClearVest’s managers are not available through any other investment platform, and a large selection are ranked in the top quartile or higher in their peer group.”
